

Austin Brown

621 Rutland Road, Apartment 4D
New York, NY 11203
(352) 514-3904

hello@austincbrown.com

<http://austincbrown.com> | <https://github.com/brownac> | <https://www.linkedin.com/in/austin-brown-8a2b62b4/>

EXPERIENCE

American Express | New York, NY - Full Stack Engineer

August 2017 - Present

- Contributed to a customer - facing application, which generated $4 billion in revenue in 2017, using Oracle, Java Spring, and React/Redux
- Worked within a microservices - based architecture and worked across microservices to deliver the application
- Used a test - driven development approach to both client - side and server - side code

SwampHacks | Gainesville, FL - Web Development Coordinator

September 2016 - January 2017

- Responsible for building the website for UF's annual hackathon using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript
- Helped build the Android app for the event using the Java Android SDK
- Kept the website updated on the day of the event with the Firebase notifications API

American Express | Ft. Lauderdale, FL - Software Engineering Intern

June - August 2016

- Used Splunk to mine and visualize data of system health for a large distributed system
- Built a proof - of - concept web application from scratch using Python Flask and Ember.js
- Participated in an "Innovation Sprint" which was focused on the automation of the intern hiring process with the MEAN stack
 - <https://github.com/brownac/AmExHackathon>

EDUCATION

The University of Florida | Gainesville, FL - Bachelor of Science in Statistics, Minor in Entrepreneurship

July 2013 - April 2017

GPA: 3.37

SKILLS

- Proficient with Java Spring Boot and WebMVC
 - Understanding of JBoss and containerless architecture
- Proficient with Javascript libraries
 - React, Meteor, Angular 1.5, Node, ES6
- Experienced with SQL and NoSQL databases
 - Oracle, MySQL, Postgres, Mongo